PROFILE

I am an HR professional shaped by years of working in versatile, dynamic, and often challenging environments that demanded both strategic clarity and hands-on execution, Thus My journey has equipped me with the ability to understand people, processes, and organizational behavior at a deeper level.

My background as a UPSC aspirant further strengthens this understanding. The discipline, analytical thinking, and holistic policy oriented perspective gained through UPSC preparation enable me to approach workplace complexities with a broader socio administrative lens, giving me a distinctive advantage in managing teams, resolving conflicts, and driving productivity.

Beyond HR, I have consistently taken on project management responsibilities, ensuring smooth coordination and high-impact delivery. One of the most significant examples of this was my role in the Tent City Project for Mahakumbh 2025—a massive initiative that required meticulous planning, inter-departmental coordination, and strong leadership under demanding circumstances.

As I pursue my MBA in HR & Operations, I continue to focus on blending human resource expertise with strategic project execution to create value-driven, people-centric organizational outcomes.
